

Could you forgive the murderer of your child and love that person's family? How is it possible to love your enemies? And what are the results of such an impossible love?

The world reacts and dishes out treatment that matches what they received. The Christian instigates better relationships by treating people better than they deserve. That is hard, but...

B.L.U.F. (Bottom Line Up Front): Hard things are worth it!

Two perks of loving your enemies. First, you become a:

1. _____ of God v. 35b-36

You will manifest that you are the child of God, bearing His image, revealing His character. When? As you are kind & merciful to the unthankful & evil. This will make you an effective team member!

Second, you are:

2. _____ by Man v. 35a, 37-38

As you reflect God's character, you will be rewarded. You will reap what you sow.

1. You Will Not Be _____ v. 37a

2. You Will Not Be _____ v. 37b

3. You Will Be _____ v. 37c

4. You Will Be _____ v. 38
