

We set aside our study of Luke back in mid-February. We were nearing the end of the Sermon on the Mount when we needed to shift our focus to our missions revival and other events. Today we refocus on this strategic passage about how our effectiveness in evangelism is impacted by our ability to love people who do not deserve our love.

B.L.U.F. (Bottom Line Up Front): Loving undeserving people opens doors to evangelism.

Luke 5 & 6 – Jesus putting His team together and coaching them.
 Luke 6:20-49 – Sermon on the Mount, Jesus' key coaching session.

1. _____ on the Team – How You View Yourself v. 20-21, 24-25

1. A Converted Sinner v. 20-21
2. A Self-Righteous Hypocrite v. 24-25

2. _____ to the Team – How You View Others v. 22-23, 26-38

Serving Jesus will create opportunities...called persecution! v. 22-23

1. What Jesus _____ v. 27-28
 Love, do good, bless, pray
2. _____ You Are to Act Like This v. 29-30
 When insulted, deprived, used, robbed
3. How This Loving People _____ v. 35-38
  - ⇒ Treated better by people v. 35a, 37-38
 Not criticized, not condemned, forgiven, enriched
  - ⇒ Reflect God's character v. 35b-36

In the final part of Jesus Sermon on the Mount, Jesus uses some illustrations and applications to drive this truth home. That's next week...
