

Have you ever hired someone to organize and prioritize your life, closet or garage? Prioritizing life is big business today! Listen to three really great people: 1) Jesus in Luke 10:42; 2) David in Psalm 27:4; and 3) Paul in Philippians 3:13.

B.L.U.F. (Bottom Line Up Front): Embrace the priority of what really matters in life! Let's focus on three topics:

1. A Transition of _____ Jesus shifts to a season of intense training of His disciples during these final 6 months. He will deal with an array of topics vital to their lives.

2. An Evening with _____ v. 38-39a

He is with people who love Him and open their home in hospitality for Jesus and His entourage. Oh, the value of hospitality! Romans 12:13; 1 Timothy 3:2; Titus 1:8; 1 Peter 4:9

3. A Contrast in _____ v. 39b-42

Priority involves time and choice...and reveals what's important. A set of contrasts is set up by "But" in vv. 40 & 42.

- 1) A Contrast of _____ v. 39b-40
Both involve good things, but both cannot be done.

- 2) A Contrast of _____ v. 41-42
Martha is full of worry and is annoyed that others don't see it like she does. But she didn't get it! She didn't understand what was of greater importance.
