

Who has the right to tell you what to do?! Do you do it? Why or why not?

B.L.U.F. (Bottom Line Up Front): Jesus has the right to instruct me.

A bit of history and geography...

Palm Sunday – the Day of Demonstration

Monday – the Day of Authority

Tuesday – the Day of Conflict

What grabs our attention about this “Tuesday” morning? Two clichés:

1. Who is the B _____? v. 1-2

Jesus’ exercise of authority (Monday) and source of that authority.

2. The Proof is in the P _____ v. 3-8

- 1) Jesus’ Question v. 3-4
- 2) Chief Priests & Scribes Deliberation v. 5-6
- 3) Chief Priests & Scribes Answer v. 7

How about some questions?

1st – Do you recognize Jesus’ right to tell you what to do?

2nd – Do you embrace Jesus’ views, His truth?

3rd – Which are you more afraid of – what people or God think of you?

One final issue

1st – Baptism came from God and is a command to be obeyed.

2nd – Actions reflect belief in God’s authority.

Wisdom for parenting

1st – Parent children toward salvation – Your Child’s Profession of Faith.

2nd – Parent children toward baptism – mentoring lessons A and B.

Jesus really is the boss & should be obeyed.
